

Advisory Committees and Councils

The University of Texas-Pan American
Committees and Councils Project

College of Health Sciences and Human Services Advisory Council

(Last updated 10-09)

Purpose

The purpose of the College of Health Sciences and Human Services Advisory Council is to aid the College in identifying health sciences and human services needs of the region and identifying strategies and resources to support the College's mission and programs.

Members

Bonnie Gonzalez	Director, Work Force Solutions
Roschel Servantes	Director of Services, Easter Seals
Woodie Johnston	Director, Valley Association for Independent Living
Kathy de la Pena	Director of Early Childhood, Region I
Sylvia Jackson	Counselor, Veterans Affairs
Linda Resendez	CEO, Edinburg Regional Medical Center
Joe Riley	CEO, McAllen Medical Center
Emmett Craig	Director of HR, Knapp Medical Center
Mark Voit	CPO, Hanger Prosthetics
Cynthia Gonzalez	Owner-Operator, Pinkerman & Gonzalez
Ruben Trevino	Owner, Bright Start Children's Rehabilitation
Eduardo Olivarez	CAO, Hidalgo County Health Department
Irma Pye	HR Director, Valley Baptist Health System, Harlingen, TX
Javier Iruegas	CEO, Mission Regional Medical Center

Responsibilities

- Advising the College of Health Sciences and Human Services as to the community and regional needs and the ways the College can address those needs.
- Serving in an advisory capacity to the Dean of the College to provide leadership and to make recommendations in establishing the College's role in the community and region.
- Enlist the aid of numerous friends of the College in fund development efforts and establish such councils and other groups as deemed desirable in carrying out the College's mission and programs.

Composition and Terms of Membership

Reporting